PLAINTIFFS’ UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR LEAVE TO EXCEED PAGE LIMITS

Plaintiffs Julia Hubbard and Kayla Goedinghaus (“Plaintiffs”) request leave to exceed the Court’s page limits and permit Plaintiffs to file an Opposition to Defendant Crow’s Motion to Dismiss that is up to twenty-seven (27) pages long.

Pursuant to Local Rule CV-7(D), parties are limited to twenty (20) pages for non-discovery motions. Plaintiffs’ Amended Complaint is 74 pages long, asserts claims against twenty-nine named individuals (plus additional unnamed individuals and companies), and asserts four causes of action against all defendants. (See, e.g., Amended Complaint, Dkt. No. 190.) This request for seven (7) additional pages is not for the purpose of delay or to complicate the proceedings but in order to ensure that the issues in dispute are clearly presented to the Court. The Court having granted Defendant Trammell S. Crow's ("Crow") Motion for Leave to Exceed Page Limits for his Motion to Dismiss should grant Plaintiffs' similar Motion for Leave. The additional pages are necessary to address and respond to the claims made in the Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. Plaintiffs have met and conferred with Defendant Crow, and he is unopposed to the relief requested.
